

John 17.6-26: What did Jesus pray for his disciples?

17.6-8 Theology: God the Father chose people to be Christ's disciples. Christ taught them what God the Father wanted him to teach. This revealed God's nature, character, & identity to the disciples. They accepted these teachings and thus "kept" God's Word, and understood who Jesus was as the divine Son of God.

Application: _____ every day for this gift! Never let _____ or _____ creep in.

Application: _____ the teachings of Jesus and his apostles in faith, so as to trust, depend on, obey, & worship God.

17.9-12 Theology: As disciples, we can bring glory to Jesus through our faith and obedience. We need divine protection from spiritual attacks. One end goal of this protection is that believers would enjoy amazing unity with each other in identity, purpose, and ethics, to reflect the unity of the Father and the Son.

Application: Individually, seek to live by _____ and _____; as a member of the church, seek to promote _____ and relational love with each other.

17.13-16 Theology: As disciples, we are left in the world, to represent God and Jesus to the world, but we are not to be like the world; rather we belong to God and must walk in his light.

Application: Pursue daily your _____ with the triune God, so you realize joy, peace, and hope.

Application: Remain _____ with society, but be distinctively Christian, not like the unbelieving world.

John 17.6-26: What did Jesus pray for his disciples?

17.6-8 Theology: God the Father chose people to be Christ's disciples. Christ taught them what God the Father wanted him to teach. This revealed God's nature, character, identity to the disciples. They accepted these teachings and thus "kept" God's Word, and understood who Jesus was as the divine Son of God.

Application: _____ every day for this gift! Never let _____ or _____ creep in.

Application: _____ the teachings of Jesus and his apostles in faith, so as to trust, depend on, obey, & worship God.

17.9-12 Theology: As disciples, we can bring glory to Jesus through our faith and obedience. We need divine protection from spiritual attacks. One end goal of this protection is that believers would enjoy amazing unity with each other in identity, purpose, and ethics, to reflect the unity of the Father and the Son.

Application: Individually, seek to live by _____ and _____; as a member of the church, seek to promote _____ and relational love with each other.

17.13-16 Theology: As disciples, we are left in the world, to represent God and Jesus to the world, but we are not to be like the world; rather we belong to God and must walk in his light.

Application: Pursue daily your _____ with the triune God, so you realize joy, peace, and hope.

Application: Remain _____ with society, but be distinctively Christian, not like the unbelieving world.

Application: Take steps to receive God's protection, every morning _____ your faith and identity in Christ,

_____ to Christ in all things, connecting to Christ in prayer and Bible reading, putting on the rest of the armor of God, and being immersed in Christian fellowship.

17.17-19 Theology: God brings us to faith and transforms us through his revelation [truth], and thereby sets us apart from the world for his own purposes. Jesus consecrated himself for God's purposes so that we could have salvation and sanctification.

Application: _____ that salvation leads to following Christ, adopting his values, shining his light, pursuing his mission.

Application: _____ yourself by responding to God's revelation with faith and obedience, cooperating with the Holy Spirit and God's Word to experience transformation in character which leads to transformation in life, and participating in the community of the church so we all are empowered by unity with God and his people.

17.20-26 Theology: Jesus' plan is that, not only will we have unity with each other, we will have unity with God the Father and Jesus himself, a unity so distinctively thorough that it proves to the world that Jesus really is the Son of God who gives spiritual life.

Application: _____ more disciples for Christ!

Application: Enjoying unity with God and unity with each other in identity, purpose, and ethics, _____ each other's diverse characteristics and empower each other for life and ministry.

Application: Take steps to receive God's protection, every morning _____ your faith and identity in Christ,

_____ to Christ in all things, connecting to Christ in prayer and Bible reading, putting on the rest of the armor of God, and being immersed in Christian fellowship.

17.17-19 Theology: God brings us to faith and transforms us through his revelation [truth], and thereby sets us apart from the world for his own purposes. Jesus consecrated himself for God's purposes so that we could have salvation and sanctification.

Application: _____ that salvation leads to following Christ, adopting his values, shining his light, pursuing his mission.

Application: _____ yourself by responding to God's revelation with faith and obedience, cooperating with the Holy Spirit and God's Word to experience transformation in character which leads to transformation in life, and participating in the community of the church so we all are empowered by unity with God and his people.

17.20-26 Theology: Jesus' plan is that, not only will we have unity with each other, we will have unity with God the Father and Jesus himself, a unity so distinctively thorough that it proves to the world that Jesus really is the Son of God who gives spiritual life.

Application: _____ more disciples for Christ!

Application: Enjoying unity with God and unity with each other in identity, purpose, and ethics, _____ each other's diverse characteristics and empower each other for life and ministry.